

United States of America

v.

Edward Walsh Vaughan (1)

Hadi Akkad (2)

4:22CR162

Chief Judge Amos Mazzant

Hidden Fees

Crooked Corporate Concealment

PERMISSIBLE TOOLS FOR JURY'S DECISION

1. Law
2. Evidence
3. Common sense

Conspiracy

Wire Fraud

Conspiracy

- ✓ Agreement to commit wire fraud [AGREEMENT]
- ✓ Knew the unlawful purpose [KNOWLEDGE]
- ✓ Joined in the agreement willfully, with the intent to further the unlawful purpose [INTENT]

Conspiracy

- ✓ Intentionally joining on one occasion - Sufficient to convict

Intent

Central issue

What does common sense say about the defendant's intent

Documentary Evidence

Emails

Financial records

Contracts

Billing statements

Call records

Database
logins

Real estate records

Vehicle purchase records

Aircraft purchase
records

Jewelry purchase records

Witnesses

Merchant clients

ETS contractors

Financial analyst

Law enforcement

Co-conspirators

Purchasing company

Layers of the Fraud Scheme

1. 30 bps does not appear in the agreement
2. 30 bps appears, double billed with discount rate
3. 30 bps charged on prepaid transactions
4. Revenue sharing with partners

Hidden Fee Wire Fraud Conspiracy Scheme

.3% or 30 basis points (bps)

| ADDED TO DEBIT | ADDED TO PREPAID | COMBINED WITH CREDIT | KEPT FROM PARTNERS |
|---|--|---|---|
| Markup not shown in the merchant agreement for offline debit Victims: Sherman, City of Ogden, United Way, Red Cross | Markup not shown in the merchant agreement for prepaid transactions Victims: 7000+ | Markup shown in the agreement for offline debit, but combined with another markup for credit Victims: 7000+ | Full merchant client pricing not shown to business partners and revenue not shared Tyler Technology |

Hidden Fees

Crooked Corporate Concealment

United States of America

v.

Edward Walsh Vaughan (1)

Hadi Akkad (2)

4:22CR162

Chief Judge Amos Mazzant